Reasons for the refusal of your application

To help you understand why your application was refused, below are the Officer Decision Notes (ODN) specific to your application as they are displayed in IRCC's system.

These notes were entered by the officer who assessed and made the final decision on your application.

- I have reviewed the application. The applicant's current employment situation does not show that they are financially established in their country of residence. Applicant has failed to provide sufficient documentation on current business activities. I am not satisfied that the applicant has demonstrated strong socio-economic ties to their home country. Weighing the factors in this application, I am not satisfied that the applicant will depart Canada at the end of the period authorized for their stay. For the reasons above, I have refused this application.

Requesting ODNs in your official language of choice:

In some cases, Officer Decision Notes may not be available in your official language of choice (English or French). To receive the notes in your preferred official language of choice, please send your request to translate.ODN-traduire.NDO@cic.gc.ca and include the following information in your email:
