MATTHEW OLAYINKA ADEBOYE,

Thank you for your interest in coming to Canada. I have reviewed your temporary resident visa (visitor visa) application and supporting documentation to assess whether you meet the requirements for a visitor visa (<https://www.canada.ca/en/immigration-refugees-citizenship/services/visit-canada/eligibility.html>). This includes assessing whether you are coming to Canada temporarily for the reason(s) you describe in your application. I have determined that your application does not meet the requirements of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (IRPA) (<https://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/acts/I-2.5/index.html>) and Immigration and Refugee Protection Regulations (IRPR) (<https://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/regulations/sor-2002-227/index.html>). I am refusing your application.

- I am not satisfied that you will leave Canada at the end of your stay as required by paragraph 179(b) of the IRPR (<https://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/regulations/SOR-2002-227/section-179.html>). I am refusing your application because you have not established that you will leave Canada, based on the following factors:
- Your current employment situation does not show that you are financially established in your country of residence.

To get help with understanding your temporary resident application refusal and what you can do next, visit: <https://ircc.canada.ca/visit-visiter/en/refusal-visa-application> .

Next Steps:

If you decide to apply again, know that:

- your new application will be assessed on its own merits,
- you must resubmit a new application and all relevant supporting documents and pay a new temporary resident application fee, and
- your new application may be refused unless it is supported by new or different information that would satisfy the officer that you meet all application requirements.
